

Registration Reminder: 2017 TAAP Symposium

Have You Registered For The 2017 TAAP Symposium? Check Out The Following Benefits!

- 1st hand info of biopharmaceutical, medical device and AI development in Taiwan and the US.
- Discussion of major junctions in developing biopharmaceutical and medical device.
- Learning the challenges and opportunities in career development in the US.
- 30 min mock interview with experienced professionals from major pharmaceutical companies.
- 25 symposium organizing committee members will help you advance your networking skills during each coffee break, lunch and dinner time.

We Look Forward To Seeing You!

- When: 10/21-10/22, 2017; Where: Princeton University, NJ
- Symposium website: <http://www.taap-us.org/events.html>
- New information for those who need transportation and lodging supports
- Students who cannot attend the symposium due to financial issue, please contact us through email: taapustw@gmail.com

About TAAP

Taiwanese American Association of Pharmaceutical Sciences (TAAP) is a nonprofit professional association of biological medicine. Our mission is to promote biopharmaceutical and technological exchanges and business cooperation between the United States and Taiwan. We aims to promote communication, coordination and cooperation of scientists, policy makers, government officials, and educators between the United States and Taiwan

